

Renee Frauendienst

Renee Frauendienst holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the College of St. Benedict and a Certificate in Performance Improvement from the University of Minnesota School of Public Health. With more than 38 years of leadership experience in public health, she is widely recognized for her expertise in innovation, policy development, performance improvement, and emergency preparedness. Her distinguished career has been honored through multiple public health awards, including the Jim Parker Leadership Award and the Barbara O'Grady Award.

Renee is a Public Health Nurse Leader Fellow through the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, where she led an initiative to strengthen civic and community engagement among nurses. She is also the founder and CEO of RnC Consulting, supporting public health organizations through strategic leadership, administrative system design, and performance improvement consultation.

Renee has a long history of board leadership. She has served on the Good Shepherd Nursing Home Board; the Minnesota Center for Nursing, where she served as President; CentraCare Health; and Stratis Health, where she served as Board Chair. She currently serves on the St. Cloud Hospital Advisory Board, where she previously held the role of Chair.
